Dear Sir

RE: Proposed Appeal and Application for Judicial Review

I refer to the appeal notice dated 6 December 2018 and an affidavit affirmed 7 December 2018 received by the Court of Appeal on 12 December 2018.

As discussed on 12 December 2018 and 21 December 2018 by telephone, your appeal notice cannot be accepted for filing for the following reasons:

- In the section "Parties to the Appeal" the respondents should be named as First and Second Respondent;
- The "Case Number" is incomplete. It should be APP 1 of 2017
- In addition, please note that if you have legal representation then the law firm should file the appeal notice. If not, then the appellant's details for service should be your own details and "no" on "Is the appellant legally represented in this appeal" should be ticked.

In relation to your Application for Review of Single Judge's or Registrar Decision dated 17 December 2018, please note that this document cannot be accepted for filing as you do not currently have an appeal on foot and there is no "decision" made by a Judge or Registrar of this Court.

Please note that until such time that an appeal notice and affidavit in support of an extension of time to appeal is received in the correct form your appeal is not on foot and no further action will be taken by the Court of Appeal office.

Your documents will be returned to you by post under cover of this letter.

Yours faithfully
